

The SDG Accord

The University and College Sector's Collective Response to the Global Goals

CASE STUDY TEMPLATE

CONTENT

It is widely agreed that integrating the SDGs into universities and colleges is both necessary and mutually beneficial.

While there is no singular correct way to integrate the SDGs in education, we know that institutions are integrating these and would like them holistically within their institution. Share your examples as part of the SDG Accord commitment in areas such as:

Integration of SDGs in

- research
- curriculum
