

Hosted by

LEARNING AND LEGACY THE ROLE OF EDUCATION IN CREATING HEALTHIER, HAPPIER CITIES
EAUC 20th Annual Conference 25th - 26th May 2016

Live My City: Bursting the campus bubble

Sam Bailey
Vice-President Welfare, Union Southampton

Partnership and Engagement

Introduction

Hello!

Partnership and Engagement

Sam Bailey

Vice-President Welfare, Union
Southampton

Julia Kendal

Sustainability Action Officer, University
of Southampton

Introduction

What I'm going to talk about

Partnership and Engagement

Our Union and University partnership

Identifying the need & developing Live My City

How did we do it?

How transferable is this model?

The future...

Partnership Union + University

Partnership and Engagement

UNIVERSITY OF Southampton

Us. Union
Southampton

Close communication between Union Sabbatical Officers, Union staff and University Sustainability Action Team

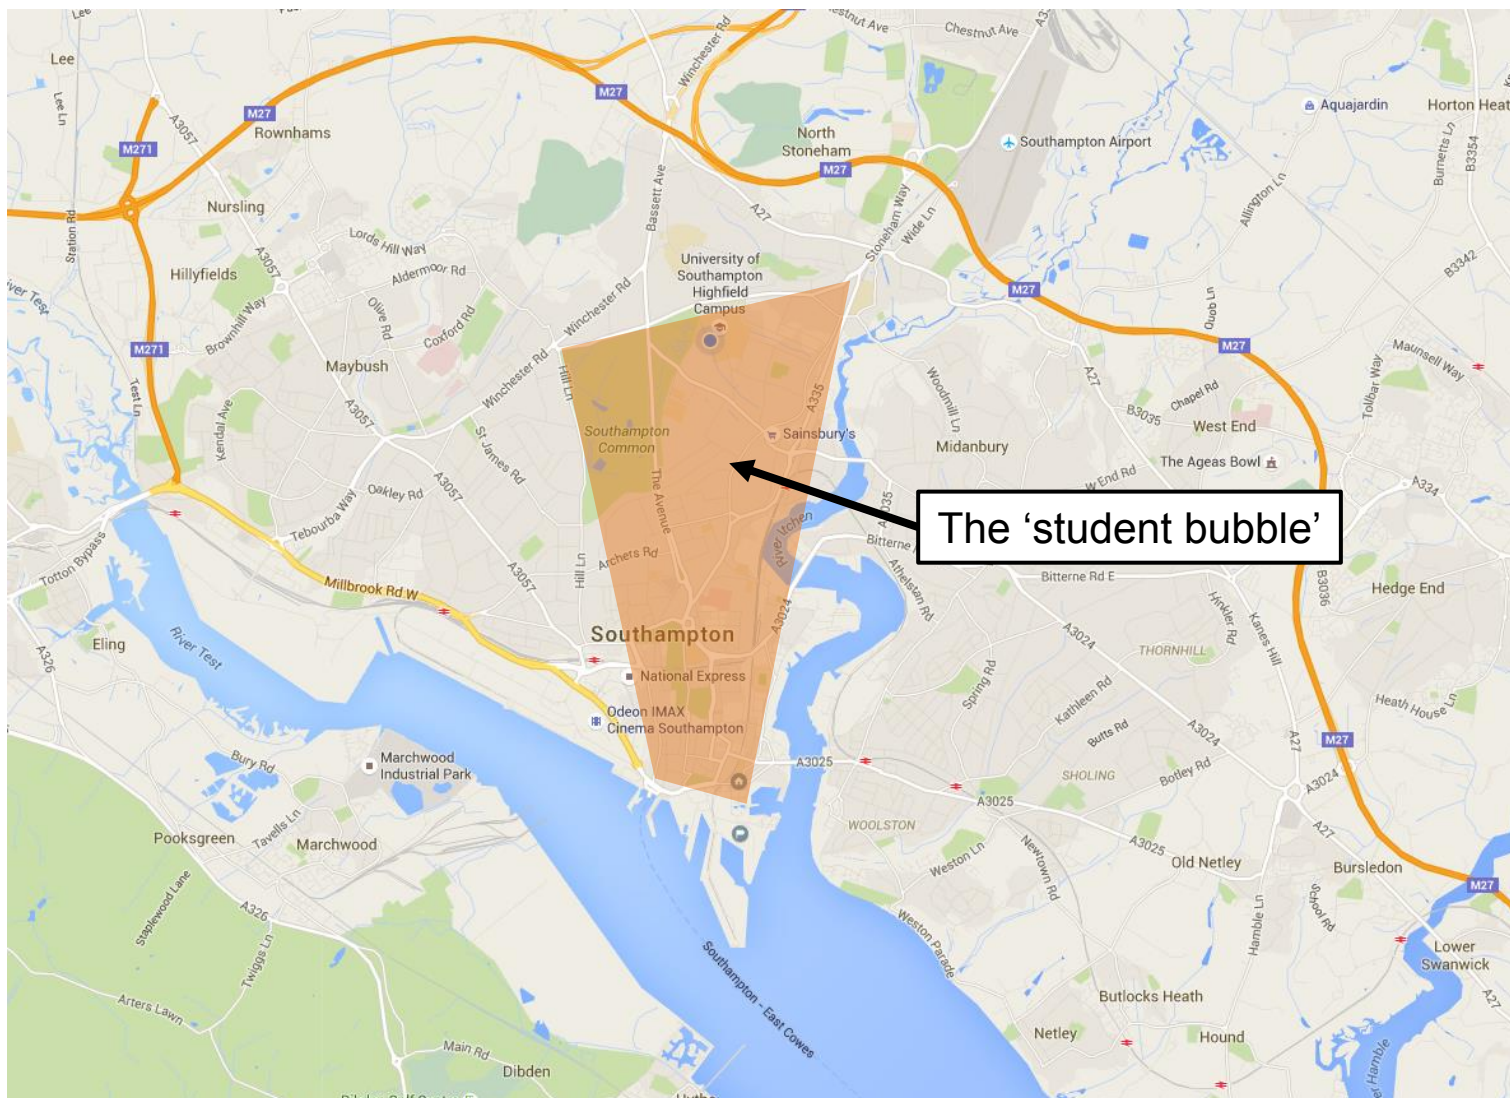

Why?

Identifying the need

Partnership and Engagement

How?

Developing Live My City

Partnership and Engagement

Discussions with Transition Southampton, Dangerous Ideas and other external organisations

University Sustainability Action Intern – initial development

How to present & engage students?

Why now? What challenges were overcome?

What we produced & what we did with it

Transferable model

Live My City on your campus

Partnership and
Engagement

Would our model work in your community? What barriers would you have to overcome?

Who would you work with in the community? Is there anyone you think we've missed out?

10 minute discussion in groups and then we'll feed back your ideas!

Where next?

Future of Live My City

Partnership and
Engagement

We're at an early stage in the project, and already we can see things to change and develop.

What have we got planned next?

University, Union and city-wide developments

Increasing our reach and impact